

Kara Holland

Kara Holland is the ceramics and sculpture teacher at Van Buren High School. In 2018, she was named the VBSD Linda May Secondary Teacher of the Year. She grew up in Alma, AR and currently resides in Fort Smith, AR with her musician husband, two wild kids, and two goofy cats. Kara studied art education with an emphasis in ceramics at U of A Fayetteville. Kara's preferred medium is clay, but also works in paper mache, mixed media, and alternative materials.

“My goal in teaching is to boost student confidence, creativity, and problem solving skills through art making.”
